Comments from officials after attending last year's Camp...

"Great clinicians, observers, presentations and seminars."

"Very organized camp."

"Great clinicians with instant feedback. I like that we rotate courts and partners to get a more diverse experience."

"It was fun and everyone was helpful."

"Good constructive criticism. Low-key approach. Good net-working."

"All the clinicians were very helpful and open to give honest critiques."

"Each clinician provided great feedback on a different aspect of officiating."

"It's evident that instructing, teaching and positive input are being stressed."

The Camp...

Now in its 14th year, the UMD Referee Camp was started in 1995 by Roy Ward with a focus on improving the quality of basketball officiating in the upper Midwest. The Camp has been recognized by previous attendees as the best value for the money and one filled with clinicians that care about helping you become a better official.

The Staff...

The top officials in the Upper Midwest will serve as clinicians and work with you to make you a better official. Clinicians with experience at the NCAA division 1, 2, 3 and junior college levels, high school state championships, the NBA, and the WNBA will be available throughout the weekend to work with you on the court and in the classroom to provide the highest quality of officiating training available at any camp anywhere in the country.

The Conference Supervisors...

Conference supervisors and assignors for both men's and women's officials from the following conferences and leagues have been invited to attend the camp, observe your games, and help you improve:

- Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference
- Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference
- Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference
- Upper Midwest Athletic Conference
- Minnesota Junior College Conference
- Minnesota State High School League

The Games...

The games you will officiate are being played as part of the annual UMD Team Camp for high school teams from all over the Upper Midwest. All games will use 3 officials and high school mechanics. New and veteran officials will benefit from this camp experience.

What you should bring...

Each referee should bring an adequate supply of equipment including black and white striped shirts, black pants (shorts are fine), black referee shoes, a whistle, towels, etc.

Wisconsin High School Officials...

This Camp meets WIAA requirements for the Officials Training Program.
